

ECA Peer Exchange in the Nation's Capitol!

In this update:

Congressmen Mike Simpson and Chuck Fleischmann to Headline ECA DC Meeting

- Do you want the inside scoop on the Department of Energy's spending plans?
- Are you interested in learning about the Department's current and future priorities?
- Do you want to hear from influential congressmen about legislation that will impact energy communities across the country?

Then sign up for the Energy Community Alliance's D.C. Peer Exchange, "Communities Working with DOE." This year's peer exchange will take place on Thursday, February 12th at the Liaison Hotel in the heart of the nation's capital!

Registration information can be found here.

House Energy and Water Appropriations Subcommittee Chairman Mike Simpson (R-ID) will kick off our peer exchange with his keynote speech on Thursday morning. We'll also from new Nuclear Cleanup Caucus Chair, Tennessee Congressman Chuck Fleischmann who serves the Oak Ridge area. Hear about the latest on DOE policy, DOE's budget, anticipated legislation, and how communities can work together in 2015!

From the Department of Energy, we'll have National Nuclear Security Administration Administrator Frank Klotz, Acting Undersecretary for Management and Performance David Klaus, Acting Assistant Secretary of Environmental Management Mark Whitney, Assistant Secretary of Nuclear Energy Pete Lyons (invited) and others.

The full agenda can be found at here.
